The biggest misconceptions about disability income insurance

It only covers severe disabilities such as paralysis or dismemberment.

I don't need it.
I don't work in a high-risk environment.

I already have a critical illness, total & permanent disability, or personal accident plan.

2 in 3 working Singapore residents are concerned about losing their job due to illness and/or disability. However, 53% do not have any disability income protection*.

While an injury or illness may not debilitate you, it can severely impact your career and earnings. With AIA Pay Protector, you can feel more secure about your income till age 65, even when a less severe injury or mental illness causes you to pause or switch your career.

Let's take a look at how its fixed monthly disability income features can complement your other plans to provide added assurance.

Benefits at a glance

Fixed monthly income for up to 5 years

We know it takes time to adjust your plans for the future after an unexpected disruption to your career due to a short-term disability or illness. The fixed monthly income payouts for up to 5 years will help supplement your loss of earnings during this difficult time.

Certainty of monthly income payouts

You can be assured that we pay the monthly income based on the plan you have chosen—regardless of any future changes to your income, any sources of income received or payouts from other disability income policies.

Premium is waived during monthly income payouts

You don't have to worry about paying your premiums while you receive your monthly income payouts, or until you recover from the disability, whichever is earlier.

Choice of five affordable plans

To ensure minimal disruption to your lifestyle and commitments, you can choose the plan that best suits your income needs.

Affordable premiums that will not increase with time

Premium is based on entry age. You can stay assured and well-protected at an affordable cost. Here are the fixed premium rates<sup>2</sup> for a S$1,000 coverage amount (monthly income payout):

30-year-old male	S$18/month
30-year-old female	S$26/month

Note: Premium rates are for non-smoker, occupational class 1 and rounded to the nearest dollar.

How AIA Pay Protector works

Jeff, 40 years old earns S$5,000 as a Telco Customer Service Officer who answers queries and resolves issues at a call centre. To protect his livelihood from unexpected illness or injury, he takes up AIA Pay Protector with a monthly income payout of S$3,000.

At age 45, Jeff suffers a rare viral condition that leads to vocal cord paralysis, causing him to lose his ability of speech and subsequently his job. The following year, he finds a new job as a Data Entry Clerk that pays him S$1,500 a month.
